Vorwort

Die nach ihrem sagenhaften Stammvater Meroveus benannte Dynastie der Merowinger beherrschte das Reich der Franken vom Ende des 5. Jahrhunderts bis zum Jahre 751. Dabei folgte der Zusammenfassung der verschiedenen fränkischen Kleinreiche durch Chlodwig zunächst 511 die Teilung unter seine vier Söhne Theuderich I. († 533), dem Theudebert I. (533-547) und Theudoald (547-555) folgten, Chlodomer († 524), Childebert I. († 558) und Chlothar I. mit den Hauptorten Reims, Orléans, Paris und Soissons. Nach dem Aussterben der übrigen Stämme der Königsfamilie wurde das Reich 558 unter Chlothar I. wieder geeint, bei seinem Tod 560/561 aber erneut unter seine Söhne Charibert, Guntram, Sigibert und Chilperich I. geteilt. Von ihnen starb Charibert früh, so dass eine Teilung in Austrien/Austrasien (Sigibert) mit dem Hauptort Metz, Neustrien (Chilperich) und Burgund (Guntram) zustandekam. Chilperich I. - verheiratet mit Fredegunde - und Sigibert - verheiratet mit Brunichilde - verstrickten sich in kriegerische Auseinandersetzungen, in deren Verlauf Sigibert 575 ermordet wurde. Ihm folgte der unmündige Childebert II., während Chilperich I. 584 von dem unmündigen Chlotar II. beerbt wurde. Beim Tode Guntrams 593 übernahm Childebert II. auch die Herrschaft in Burgund, verstarb aber schon 596, wobei Austrasien an Theudebert II. und Burgund an Theuderich II. fielen, für die ihre Großmutter Brunichilde regierte. Sie proklamierte nach dem Tod der Enkel Theuderichs II. ältesten Sohn Sigibert II. zum Herrscher, scheiterte aber am austrasisch-burgundischen Adel, der den Neustrier Chlothar II. ins Land rief, unter dem das Reich zwischen 613 und 629 erneut eine Einheit bildete. Ihm folgte Dagobert I. (629-638), der seinem Bruder Charibert II. für kurze Zeit ein Königreich Aquitanien einrichtete, 633 seinen Sohn Sigibert III. zum Unterkönig von Austrien erhob und Neustrien und Burgund seinem Sohn Chlodwig II. († 657) bestimmte. Diese neuen Könige und ihre Nachfolger (Dagobert II. † 679, Chlothar II., Childerich II. † 675, Theuderich III. † 691) gerieten bald in die Abhängigkeit der adligen Großen, unter denen sich der Arnulfinger (bzw. Pippinide bzw. Karolinger) Pippin der Mittlere 687 militärisch durchsetzen konnte. Als Hausmeier ließen er und seine Nachfolger bis zur Ablösung der Merowinger im Jahre 751 nur noch jeweils einen König zu (Theuderich III., Chlodwig III., Childebert III., Dagobert III., Chilperich II., Theuderich IV., Childerich III.). Insgesamt entspricht dem folgende Stammtafel (Biographisches Wörterbuch zur deutschen Geschichte, 2. A. Bd. 2, 1974, 1885):

Unter den Merowingern erfolgte auf dem Boden des ehemaligen römischen Reiches eine erste Verschmelzung zwischen christlicher Antike und heidnischem Germanentum. Sie hatte neben vielem anderen auch die Übernahme der Schrift durch die Franken zur Folge. Sie kommt in erster Linie durch die Aufzeichnung des Rechts (Pactus legis Salicae 507/11?, Lex Ribvaria 7. Jh.?) und die schriftliche Fixierung der fränkischen Geschichte (Gregor von Tours † 594, „Fredegar“ 658/60) zum Ausdruck. Darüberhinaus treten jetzt auch die ersten fränkischen Urkunden auf, die freilich, wie das übrige fränkische Schrifttum, lateinisch abgefasst sind.

Diese frühesten urkundlichen Zeugnisse haben wegen ihres Alters und wegen ihrer relativen Seltenheit naturgemäß schon früh das besondere Interesse der Historiker und vor allem der Diplomaten gefunden. Von daher überrascht es nicht, dass sie schon in einem der ersten Bände der wichtigsten deutschen historischen Edition, der Monumenta Germaniae Historica, publiziert worden sind (Diplomata regum Francorum e stirpe Merovingica, ed. Pertz, K. A. F., 1872, Neudruck 1965).

Diese Edition enthält insgesamt 97 Diplome der Könige zwischen 510 und 744, 24 Diplome der Hausmeier zwischen 650 und 751 sowie 103 unechte Urkunden (95 Diplomata spuria der Könige von 479-749, 8 unechte Urkunden der Hausmeier von 687-715), also insgesamt 224 Zeugnisse. Die neuere Forschung hat demgegenüber eine Reihe der in der Edition für echt gehaltenen Urkunden als unecht oder verfälscht erkannt und umgekehrt auch unechten Urkunden einen echten Kern zugesprochen. Von daher wurde die vorliegende Edition seit langem als fragwürdig und eine kritische, über die 38 zwischenzeitlich in Faksimile veröffentlichten Originalurkunden der Merowingerkönige zwischen 625 und 717 (Les diplômes originaux des Mérovingiens publiés par Lauer, P./Samaran, C., Paris 1908) hinausreichende Edition als notwendig angesehen. (Vgl. auch Debus, K., Studien zu merowingischen Urkunden und Briefen, Archiv für Diplomatik 13 (1967) 1, 14 (1968) 1; Classen, P., Kaiserreskript und Königsurkunde, Athen 1977).

Angesichts einer älteren vorliegenden Edition und einer ihr folgenden bessernden Edition bedarf es einer besonderen Rechtfertigung, wenn für die mangelhafte Edition nach mehr als 100 Jahren noch ein Wörterverzeichnis erstellt wird. Sie ergibt sich aus folgenden Gründen: Die merowingischen Diplome verdienen wegen ihres Alters und wegen ihrer relativen Seltenheit besonderes Interesse, wobei auch die Fälschungen und Verurteilungen einzubeziehen sind. Die ältere Edition wird jedenfalls wissenschaftsgeschichtlich neben einer neueren Edition immer bedeutsam bleiben. Ein großer Teil ihres Inhalts ist notwendigerweise sogar in einer neuen Edition enthalten. Vielleicht erweckt ein Index zu einer älteren Edition auch ein Interesse an einem Index der neueren Edition.

Dies hat zu dem Entschluss geführt, in Parallele zur Verzeichnung des Wortschatzes der merowingischen Konzilien und der germanisch/germanistischen Volksrechte auch den vollständigen Wortschatz der Merowingerdiplome (an Hand der älteren Edition) zusammenzustellen. Dabei haben sich bei vielleicht knapp 100000 Belegen rund 6100 Ansätze (Wörter und Namen) ergeben, ohne dass die Einordnung im Einzelfall kritisch vertieft hätte werden können. Ebensowenig kann an dieser Stelle auf den eventuellen sprachgeschichtlichen Ertrag des Verzeichnisses eingegangen werden. Dieses wie vieles andere muss künftiger Forschung vorbehalten bleiben, der sich das vorliegende Buch als einfaches Hilfsmittel zur Verfügung stellen will.

Mit der Indizierung der merowingischen Diplome ist ein weiteres Hilfsmittel zur Erforschung der frühmittelalterlichen Geschichte geschaffen. Seine Erstellung ist nur durch die Mithilfe mehrerer meiner Gießener Mitarbeiter möglich gewesen, denen ich dafür sehr zu Dank verpflichtet bin.

Um der modernen Technik Rechnung zu tragen, ist das Wörterverzeichnis durch Frau Bonnie Yen, der ich für ihren Einsatz sehr herzlich danke, gescannt und damit weltweit maschinell lesbar gemacht worden

Die jüngere, 2001 erschienene Edition (Die Urkunden der Merowinger, hg. v. Kölzer, T., 2001) erfasst 196 Urkunden (21 bzw. nach der Konkordanz 20 mehr als die ältere Edition, bei Pertz fehlen Kölzers Nummern (5), 16, 18, 23, 37, 53, 54, 56, 59, 73, 76, 77, 79, 87, 90, 146, 165, 176, 177, 194, 197, nicht einschlägig sind die 24 Hausmeierurkunden und die Diplomata (ed. Pertz) Nr. 7, + 16, + 39, + 55-59 (echt), + 60 (echt)), 13 Spuria moderna (5 mehr als Pertz) und 415 Deperdita der 35 merowingischen Könige zwischen Chilperich I. und Childerich III. (751). Von den 196 Urkunden sind 129 (65,8 Prozent) gefälscht, interpoliert (10) oder zweifelhaft, 67 (zwischen 596 und 743) bisher unbeanstandet. Die erhaltenen 38 Originale kommen aus dem Kloster Saint Denis. Die Edition Kölzers verzichtet auf ein vollständiges Wörterverzeichnis und bietet ausgewählte Stichwörter mit ausgewählten Belegstellen. Hiervon sind die (ausgewählten) Stichwörter nachträglich in das 1983 vorgelegte Wörterverzeichnis eingearbeitet. Soweit sich daraus eine Erweiterung ergab, ist diese durch DDMer2001 bzw. <DDMer2001> gekennzeichnet.
