Vorwort

Die Volksrechte der germanischen Teilstämme sind die bekanntesten Rechtsquellen des deutschen Frühmittelalters. Als solche verdienen sie eine besondere Erschließung durch umfassende Wörterverzeichnisse. Den Wörterverzeichnissen der Concilia aevi merovingici, der Leges Langobardorum, der Lex Burgundionum, der Lex Saxonum, der Lex Thuringorum, der Lex Frisionum, des Pactus legis Salicae, der Lex Salica, der Lex Ribvaria, der Ewa Chamavorum und der älteren (volkssprachigen) Gesetze der Angelsachsen sollen die alemannisch-bayerischen Volksrechte folgen.

Von diesen ist der Lex Baiwariorum zugrundegelegt die Ausgabe Lex Baiwariorum, hg. v. Schwind, E. v. 1926, Neudruck 1997 (Monumenta Germaniae Historica, Leges nationum Germanicarum 5, 2). Die Lex Baiwariorum ist in mehr als 30 Handschriften überliefert. Sie ist möglicherweise kurz vor der Mitte des 8. Jahrhunderts unter Verwendung zahlreicher Quellen (u. a. auffälligerweise des sog. Codex Euricianus) in die älteste bekannte Gestalt gebracht worden. Diese umfasst mehr als 17600 Wörter, die zu nicht ganz 2000 Stichwörtern gehören. Mit ihrer Indizierung ist ein weiteres Hilfsmittel zur Erstellung der frühmittelalterlichen Geschichte geschaffen.

Für die Mitarbeit bei der Erstellung bin ich meinen Gießener Mitarbeitern, insbesondere den stud. iur. Schellenberg, Koellner und Metzler sehr zu Dank verpflichtet.

Um der modernen Technik Rechnung zu tragen, ist das Wörterverzeichnis durch Frau Bonnie Yen, der ich für ihren Einsatz sehr herzlich danke, gescannt und damit weltweit maschinell lesbar gemacht worden
